

Travel and Tourism BTEC and Health and Social Care BTEC

Both of these courses are continuously assessed throughout the year. The students will not have a written examination during the exam period, but should continue working towards their next piece of coursework.